

May 20, 2010

I'm proud to say that I have had the opportunity to work with Life Long Learning since 2004. Quite simply, they helped me turn around one of Chicago's lowest performing schools, from 22% of students meeting state standards, to 82% today. What makes LLL unique in the world of educational consultants is their combination of expertise, flexibility, and commitment – in addition to their capacity to build meaningful relationships with teachers and administrators alike. Over the years, they helped our school and now network build a diagnostic assessment system, develop school-wide instructional strategies, and build a culture of caring accountability among adults that continue to push our practice. They are beloved by my staff as trusted confidants, and I too count on them to help us continue to push our practice. As far as I can tell, they are one of the best kept professional development secrets out there!!

All best,

Jarvis